Archetypal Cosmology: A New Mythic Perspective

Keiron Le Grice

JANUARY 14, 2022: LECTURE: As established traditions and archetypes pass away or lose their persuasive power, what, if anything, might serve as a shared framework of meaning to illuminate our individual and collective experience? What, many of us wonder, might be the nature of a mythology to come? In this talk, we will consider the role of an archetypal astrology as a cosmological perspective that could help us better understand our relationship to the universal powers and principles shaping our experience and provide mythic orientation for our lives. ### The Way of the Archetypes: Using Archetypal Astrology as a Guide to Individuation

JANUARY 15, 2022: WORKSHOP: By considering examples in film, music, and literature, and with reference to ancient astrological birth charts, in this workshop we will explore how to use archetypal astrology to understand the major themes and imperatives of our lives. We will focus on the archetypal principles associated with Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto, each of which is profoundly consequential for individuation, moving us towards psychological maturity, creative awakening, spiritual realization, and deep transformation.
